The veterans interviewed on the World War II season of Service range from 93 to 101 years old! They've been incredibly generous in sharing their time, energy, and stories with us and they (and their families) love hearing from listeners.

Use the prompts below to write a letter to a Service veteran. (Teachers, collect and digitally send to jacqueline@wordsfoodart.com - include your contact information if interested. We cannot guarantee correspondence, but will past forward messages as deemed appropriate.)

Dear _____ (veteran),

In listening to your episode on Service, I was most fascinated to learn:

I felt we have something in common when I heard you explain:

One thing I hadn't thought much about before was:

And now, I'm curious to learn more about.

Thank you for your Service. I hope:

Sincerely,
